BioHealth Technology

BioHealth Technology is the exclusive distributor of Healthy Changes Wellness and Weight Management programs. Healthy Changes uses the exclusive scientifically proven BioAnalogs Health Management System which is currently used in many leading North American gyms, universities, hospitals and medical and anti-aging clinics. We can help you implement programs to enable you to accurately measure and monitor your clients' percentage body fat and lean muscle mass (more accurate than BMI and skin fold test); motivate your clients to follow a healthier lifestyle, access how and why energy imbalance has occurred and develop and implement activity based and healthy eating plans. The result: healthier and happier clients.

Litex

Why look ordinary? Since 1991 Litex has built a reputation throughout Europe by making significant strides in sportswear and swimwear apparel, taking a more progressive approach with innovative fabrics and features at competitive prices. Our goal is to introduce fashion awareness to the active sports population. Increasingly, more people who participate in sports are interested in looking stylish and attractive. We believe that better fit and technology mean better performance and therefore our apparel is designed with the customer in mind. Manufactured and designed in Europe, you will be sure to have the hottest styles and colours on the market.

FitnessNZ sunbed resource

Australia and New Zealand have set regulations for sunbed operation (both countries are covered by the same regulations). FitnessNZ has developed a resource that helps fitness centres with sunbeds to comply with the standards, and this includes templates and sample forms and signs. Provided free to all FitnessNZ members (and for a limited time, also free to any Australian based Club and Business members of Network). To receive a free copy of this resource please contact FitnessNZ at fnz@fitnessnz.co.nz

Authentic Health Fitness Australia

...powering healthfitness.com.au – independently ranked as Australia's most visited health and fitness web site, in daily user reach.

For over five years, AHFA has been developing innovative internet based products, services, software and online marketing systems, for the Australian health and fitness industry. We develop, manage and market the leading web portal healthfitness.com.au launched in 2001 to showcase Australia's Online Health Fitness Directory™ - now featuring over 100 supporting advertisers and over 5000 permission based business listings. We also design, develop and support the web projects of over twenty health and fitness businesses, including leisure centres, health clubs, gyms and personal training businesses throughout Australia. Now celebrating its sixth year in operation, AHFA is entering the New Zealand market.

For more information visit healthfitness.com.au, an official co-sponsor of the Network 06 event in Brisbane, 9 to 11 November.
